

Please serve public interests and not private interests by preventing further consolidation of US media. US media is already controlled by too few private interests, and the result has been a steady decline in quality of content and representation of a wide array of viewpoints. Thank you.